

You're invited to a very special reading of selections from
The Mighty Ant: Short Stories for Seniors
on Thursday Sept 6th at 6:30 pm
At the Chatham County Agriculture & Conference Center

As part of a project benefitting Chatham County Council on Aging to bring more caregiving services to the area, this anthology will be presented at a reception which will include guest author readings and discussion. We hope that you will join us to meet some of the authors and hear about why short stories in this kind of format are helpful when our loved ones are suffering from cognitive disorders and memory loss. Containing over 50 stories by 33 authors from all over the world, this book is a great addition to your bookshelf.

To pre-purchase the book for author signatures or to read ahead, go to amazon.com.

*All proceeds are donated to CCCOA.
